Disclosure Pursuant to California Transparency in Supply Chains Act of 2010 (SB 657)

The Topps Company, Inc. has been a leading confectionary supplier for over 75 years. In that time the company's brands have earned a reputation for wholesomeness and quality. And, as a company that employs over 400 employees with well-paying jobs, we recognize the responsibility and benefits of treating our workers with respect and fairness.

Topps also purchases a variety of goods from reputable international manufacturers. The company endeavors to deal only with established vendors with the best reputations, and its contracts with all manufacturers require compliance with all applicable laws regarding employment practices and contracting including but not limited to applicable age and wage regulations. In addition, Topps visits all of its manufacturers at prearranged times at least once a year to assess the production and working conditions of all manufacturing facilities. No areas of concern have been identified on these visits. If such concerns were ever to arise, they would be addressed in a timely and appropriate manner.
